After the reading of the correspondence, Mr. H. A. Koch interviewed Council in connection with division of the Town banking account being made as between the Bank of Montreal and the Provincial Treasury Branch and was advised by the Mayor that this matter would come up for consideration later in the meeting. A delegation from Wainwright Municipal District consisting of Reeve Sutherland and Councillor Rattray waited on Council regarding a grant from their Municipal District towards the upkeep of the Wainwright Cemetery, they having been approached on this matter by Councillors Tory and Leggett of the Town Council. After quite a lengthy discussion concerning same, it was agreed that a committee be formed jointly between the two corporations and a report submitted at a later date.

On motion of Councillor Stafford it was resolved that the offer received from Mr. A. E. Davignon to purchase Lot 2, Block 40, Plan 945-z be accepted pending the passing of the necessary By-Law, purchase price being $35.00.

An offer to purchase Lots 19 and 20, Block 23, Plan 6445-V for the sum of $72.50, was received from Mr. Walter Schwenk of Edgerton and, on motion of Councillor Stafford this was approved pending the passing of the necessary By-law.

A. Jones; Lot 10, Block 32, Plan 6445-V, Mrs. Stinert; Lot 20, Block 45, Plan 945-z, E. Davignon; Lot 9, Block 22, Plan 6445-V, R. Armstrong; Lot 5, Block 38, Plan 945-z, Mrs. T. Myer; Lot 27, Block 3, Plan 6445-V, H.U. Taylor.

On motion of Councillor Robinson, that the letter received from Mrs. MacLellan be filed and she be advised to get in touch with the Property Committee for adjustment of arrears.

On motion of Councillor Stafford that the request from Mrs. Brault to build a fence on Lot 3, Block 4, Plan 6445-V, be granted but that Town cannot assume any expense on same on account of low rental conditions.

On motion of Councillor Cork, that letter referring to Public Rest Room, from Mr. H. U. Taylor, Secretary Treasurer of Municipal District of Wainwright, No. 392, be referred to the Property Committee for recommendation at our next meeting.

Living Bonus In Basic Wage Rates

The National War Labour Board today stated that information reaching Ottawa indicates that one employer still appear to be in doubt as to the application of the regulations which required the incorporation of cost of living bonus in basic wage rates. This regulation was embodied in the Wartime Wages Control Order, 1943, which revoked and superseded the Order previously in effect.

The Board points out that all employers subject to the Wartime Wages Control Order were required, commencing with the first payroll period on or after February 15 last, to establish a new wage rate inclusive of the cost of living bonus previously paid.

The Board further explains that all employers not specifically excluded from the provisions of the Wartime Wages Control Order were required to pay a cost of living bonus of .60 per week commencing with the first payroll period on or after August 15, 1942 to adult male employees, and other employees earning $25.00 or more a week and 2.4% of the weekly wage rate to male minors and female employees receiving less than $25.00 a week; and that beginning with the first payroll period on or after November 15, 1943, it became obligatory for employers to increase this bonus to .95 a week or 3.8% of the weekly wage rate.

Traffic In Loose Coupons Illegal

Edmonton—Casual exchanges of rationed commodities are now permitted by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board but this does not allow persons to detach unused coupons from their ration books and give them to their friends. It is against the law to traffic in loose ration coupons. No one is entitled to accept a loose ration coupon, either a consumer or a retailer, Board officials emphasize.

Volunteers are Thanked W.I. Hold Regular Successful Meeting

Ottawa—In a letter to Local Ration Boards in Canada, Donald Gordon, Prices Board chairman thanked volunteer helpers who distributed nearly 12,000,000 ration books across the Dominion during Ration Book Week.

Wrote Mr. Gordon: "Distribution of ration books is a colourless, sometimes thankless job. We of the Board do thank you. We are proud of your accomplishment. Congratulations on a job well done."

Ft. Lt. G. Middlemass Receives Gold Wings

Two R.C.A.F. officers, veterans of many flights over enemy territory, will be presented with gold operational wings at No. 2 A.O.S. Friday, it was announced by air officers Wednesday.

One is Flt. Lt. Gilbert "Mickey" Middlemass, Wainwright; and F.O. S. Comishen, both instructing at the Edmonton air school. Flt. Lt. Middlemass is a son of Dr. and Mrs. J. G. M. Middlemass, and was a prisoner of war, escaping from an Italian prison camp at the time Italy was invaded. Both he and F.O. Comishen have completed operational tours and are entitled to wear the gold operational wing.

Farmer's Crop Supplies Are In Big Demand

Indications of early spring planning and planting are seen in the increased demand for fertilizer and seed, according to administrative officials of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

A strong demand for forage, grass and vegetable seed all across Canada is noted, and distribution of supplies is making it possible to meet requirements. There has been a heavy call on vegetable seeds because of Victory Gardens and the increased farmer interest of growing household food.

Supplies of seed potatoes are said to be sufficient to meet planting requirements, and are being sold in 75 pound bags this year.

The best seed potatoes are certified and have a Department of Agriculture tag on the bag. Amateur gardeners planting Victory Gardens are advised to share a bag of certified seed potatoes. The government tag assures the gardener that he is buying seed potatoes and not ordinary table potatoes.

It is estimated that 40 percent of spring shipments of fertilizer had been made to dealers and farmers on April 1, double the amount shipped at this time last year. Farmers are making early calls for their needs this year.

Local A.F.U. Formed In Wainwright

James Jackson of Irma, President of the A.F.U., addressed a meeting of local farmers in the I.O.O.F. hall on Saturday, April 15th.

After hearing Mr. J. Jackson's address in which he explained the purpose of the A.F.U., it was decided to form a local of the A.F.U. in Wainwright.

In his address Mr. Jackson spoke on parity prices, co-operatives and the desire of the A.F.U. for amalgamation with the A.F.U. and the question of affiliation to trade unions.

Mr. L. Myggland was elected President and A. C. Hutchison, Secretary

W.I. Hold Regular Successful Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Wainwright Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. W. Carrell, on Thursday, April 13th, 1944. Twenty members and five visitors were present. Mrs. B. Greer, president presided.

The meeting opened by singing the Institute song and repeating the Club Women's Creed.

The roll call was answered by each member contributing an article for Greek relief, this is to be handed over to the Red Cross. Splendid clothing was given.

Letters were read from members sons who received cigarettes for their birthdays.

A donation is to be given to the Salvation Army for their drive.

The paper given by Mrs. Bruncker on Social Service was well received.

"Social Service is one of our new out lines and really means Social Insurance, Social Security, Income Maintenance Provisions, Social Utilities which comprise those services, requisite to good living standards.

1. Social Assistance measures provide, for all persons caught in the net of unpredictable need, some way of ascertaining the exact needs of each individual case and the means required to meet them through providing material help (food, fuel, clothing, stock, seed, grain, implements, etc.) counsel training for whatever physical, mental or social adjustments the situation demands, on what the social worker describes as "the case work basis".

2. Social Insurance systems are built on the principle of isolating those occurrences that are reasonably predictable and insurable for specified duration within contractual stipulations. Under any scheme of true Social Insurance, the payment of premiums and other conditions having been met, within the terms of a statute, the payment of benefits to sustain income on the preagreed basis follows as an automatic and contractual right, and therefore is divorced of any needs or means tests other than those of compliance with the terms of the original contract.

The Dominion of Canada is the achievement of a small people with a great faith in their own strength. Initiative and enterprise meant opportunity and thrift, meant security. The years between the two wars dealt, ruthlessly and cruelly, with the Canadian's superb and simple confidence in his own destiny but they did not destroy the essential vigor and buoyancy of this country. For the vitality in the land itself, in the vibrant silence of the forests, in the quiet sense of growth in the prairie soil, the pounding power in the rushing streams. Energy, ambition and the instinct of thrift still are bred in the people, as a whole, born of their background and renewed in the necessity of preparation, always for the sharp, harsh changes of the seasons with constant adaptation to their needs. No plan for security, with freedom and opportunity, can be well imposed upon such people. It must be a growth from the nature and background of the land itself, a fulfillment in which each different element in our life shall have contributed its strength.

Nursing as a Social Utility, on an hourly basis, is widely available through a few areas as a public service but in a hundred communities across Canada by the ingenious and successful partnership of the Victorian Order of Nurses, privately operated as a Social Utility, giving services or selling them on a part-pay basis with subsidy from public funds, as a situation seems to require. A hundred thousand patients received care last year at an over all cost of a little over $700,000. In the prairie provinces particularly, the recognition of medical care as a public Social Utility has been growing in the development of the "Municipal Doctor" plan. The Marsh and Heagerty reports propose a contributory insurance plan to cover the cost of health and medical care, tied in the case of the wage worker, to deductions made on his pay envelope, and in the case of the "assessed contributor" to a percentage of his income.

It is impossible to discuss these Utilities thoroughly but would like to mention the Maternity benefits again. Better protection for maternity and infancy especially for the working mother requires provision along two lines: 1. a fair standard of good prenatal, maternity and post-natal care, and 2. assurance of income maintenance for the mother and the other

Big Parade Sat. Night Opens Victory Loan

The Wainwright-Irma District got away on a good start for their objective of $133,000.00 quota of the Sixth Victory Loan on Saturday evening, April 22, 1944, with a Patriotic Parade and Dedication Ceremony.

The Wainwright Branch of the Canadian Legion organized the parade at the request of Mrs. Fred Roberts, Chairman of the Publicity Committee. The parade moved off in the following order from the C.N.R. station at 7:30 P.M. Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Wainwright Town Band, two platoons of the 23rd General Pioneers and three divisions of the Royal Canadian Sea Cadets with their Mascot "Dutchess" an English Bull-dog proudly leading the Junior Navy's contribution. Lieut. Slater, Adjutant at the Wainwright Army Camp was in charge of the parade.

On passing the Cenotaph eyes left in succession was given as a mark of respect to the fallen 1914-1918 War, around the base of the Cenotaph six youngest Sea Cadets in the Province stood guard.

The parade was maneuvered into position in front of the Post Office, where the members of the Canadian Legion wearing medals and berets commanded by Comrade Bud Colton, with the members of the St. John's Ambulance Corps flanked the main approach, the Miss Canada Girls also taking up a prominent position, two divisions of the Sea Cadet Corps "EXETER" in blue rig gaiters and sidearms flanked the main street facing north and south with the two platoons of the Canadian Army which added much color to the ceremony, completing the square facing east.

At the main entrance of the Government Building the Victory Loan Committee were assembled and from there Mr. Don Pawsey, Chairman of the Committee, in the absence of His Worship Mayor Middlemass, presented Mr. Alex Adams, the Unit Organizer, with an Engraved Plaque emblematic of the district's pledge to raise the required quota, in the following words: "Fellow citizens of Wainwright and friends of the rural areas surrounding this town. In the absence of His Worship Mayor Middlemass, as chairman of the Local Unit of Canada's Sixth Victory Loan, I bid you all a hearty welcome to this parade.

The plaque that I am about to hand to our local unit organizer, Mr. Alex Adams, will be in form our official credentials on the part of the Local Committee to commence the drive for subscriptions to this Loan. Let us all do our utmost to reach our allotted quota, having ever in mind that whatever little sacrifice we make at this time to purchase these Bonds, is as nothing in comparison to what our boys are giving, and in many cases have given, to preserve the liberty and freedom we are enjoying here this very evening. Buy Bonds and Buy to the limit of your capacity and let Wainwright and District go over the top in Canada's Sixth Victory Loan."

The Plaque was dedicated by Captain the Rev. J.P. Ehmann who was supported by Rev. A. D. Richards, both of Wainwright.

The Armed Guard supplied by the R.C.S.C. "EXETER" who were in position in the centre of the square presented arms while the National Anthem was played.

Concluding the ceremony the Band under the leadership of Mr. Frank McLeod furnished appropriate airs while the Units disbanded to their several dismissal points.

The Officers and Ratings of the "EXETER" wish to thank Mrs. Hunt Ingford for the use of "Dutchess" which added the British Bull-dog spirit to the parade, to Sea Cadet Pat Buckton who did a Nelson's job hanging on to the leash.

Would the parties taking pictures of the parade and assembly who care to loan the negatives to the Sea Cadet Corps so that prints may be obtained for the ship's log, leave same with Lieuts. Wilbraham and Findlay or Instructor Ordway and they will be returned with thanks. The Public Relationship Committee wish to thank all the merchants and business men who helped make the evening such a success by closing while the parade was in progress.

Hints for the Household

Curing "Picky" Eaters

Have you a "picky" eater in your house—a child who refuses to eat his spinach and even complains when a glass of milk is placed before him?

Quite likely you have, and you are not alone, for millions of mothers have the same problem.

You take care of your spinach problem and I'll be your Ways and Means Committee so far as milk is concerned. Between us, we should be able to cure the "picky" eater.

Serve fried beef and scalloped potatoes. Both call for liberal quantities of milk.

What! They refuse both in your home? You have a real problem, haven't you?

All right! Serve light custards and puddings, ice cream and sherbets, egg nog and ice cream sodas. And don't tell me for a minute that your particular "picky" eater will refuse dishes like these.

Children love desserts. Some desserts are too rich for tender stomachs. But anything like a plain rennet-custard, or even one which carries a bit of fruit or jelly as a topping, is a healthful dish that children love and may be repeated several times each week.

The great bulk of such a dessert is milk—and the problem of your "picky" eater is a problem no longer.

A dish of this kind may be served as a dessert, may be used as an in-between-meal snack, and for the old or folk, it serves as a light, easily-digested before-bed bite. Taken from the refrigerator it touches the spot at any time.

Rennet-custards may be prepared quickly in the morning or even the night before, placed in the refrigerator and produced when needed. Easy to prepare, economical, light, healthful, tasty, and filled with milk. What more could one desire? Here are a couple of recipes for those who may wish to try something new:

Maple Cream Rennet-Custard

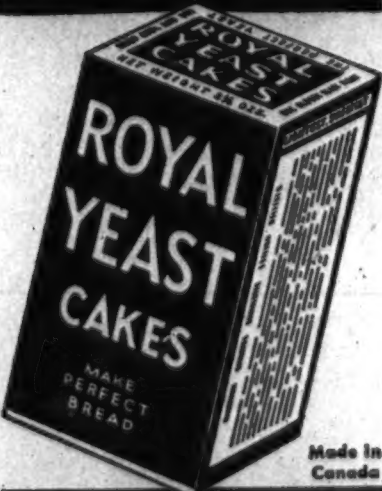

1 package maple rennet powder
1 cup milk, not canned
1 cup cream, (light)
Set out 4 or 5 individual dessert glasses. Warm milk and cream slowly, stirring constantly. Test a drop on inside of wrist frequently. When COMFORTABLY WARM (110°F.) not hot, remove at once from heat. Stir rennet powder into mixture briskly until dissolved not over one minute. Pour at once, while still liquid, into individual dessert glasses. Do not move until firm—about 10 minutes. Chill.

Egg Rennet-Custard

1 household rennet tablet
1 tablespoon cold water
2 cups milk, not canned
3 tablespoons sugar
2 egg yolks

Makes baking easy and sure—Loaves light, even-textured, Delicious

ALWAYS DEPENDABLE
AIRTIGHT WRAPPER
ENSURES STRENGTH

1 teaspoon vanilla
Small pinch salt
Set out 4 or 5 individual dessert glasses. Dissolve rennet tablet by crushing in cold water in a cup. Add sugar, vanilla, salt and slightly beaten egg yolks to milk and warm slowly, stirring constantly. Test a drop on inside of wrist frequently. When COMFORTABLY WARM (110°F.) not hot, remove at once from heat. Add dissolved rennet tablet and stir quickly for a few seconds only. Pour at once, while still liquid into individual dessert glasses. Do not move until firm—about 10 minutes. Chill.

These muffins are delicious with cottage cheese or other spreads for your lunch pail:

Bran Molasses Muffins
¾ cup sifted flour
3 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
¾ teaspoon salt
1 egg, well beaten
2/3 cup milk
¾ cup molasses
3 tablespoons melted butter or other shortening
1½ cups 40% bran flakes

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Combine egg, milk, molasses, and shortening. Add to flour mixture and mix only enough to dampen all flour. Add flakes. Bake in greased muffin pans in hot oven (425°F.) 15 to 20 minutes or until done. Makes 16 medium or 8 large muffins.

Fruited Bran Muffins: Add 1 cup raisins or finely chopped dates to flour mixture. Notes ¾ cup water may be substituted for 2/3 cup milk in the above recipe.

Roast Chicken

1 roasting chicken
Stuffing
Fat
Salt and pepper
Flour

Wash, singe and draw the bird, rub it with salt and pepper inside and out, and stuff with any desired stuffing. Bread stuffing, chestnut stuffing and celery stuffing are particularly good. Truss and tie the fowl. Grease it well, dredge with flour and place it on a spit in a double broasting pan in a hot oven (500°F.), to sear quickly so that its juices may not escape during the roasting. After fifteen minutes, when the skin is well seared, cover the pan, lessen the heat to 350° and cook until the breast is tender. If cooked in an open pan, as soon as the flour has been nicely browned, baste well, adding a little fat or water if necessary, repeating the basting every ten minutes. Allow fifteen to twenty minutes per pound for roasting. Serve with giblet sauce

Creamed Codfish

1 cup salt codfish
1 cup milk
1 egg
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
Separate the fish into very small pieces and leave in cold water for three hours, changing the water three times. Heat the milk in a double boiler. Add the codfish, well drained, and cook for ten minutes. Mix the butter with the flour until a smooth paste is formed, then stir it into the milk. Cook ten minutes. Take the dish from the heat, add the beaten egg, stir well and serve without further cooking, adding a sprinkling of pepper just before dishing. If the sauce is cooked after the egg is added, the milk is likely to curdle. The egg may be omitted.

MOTHER SHIPTON'S PROPHECY

When reading an American paper recently, I was filled with amazement when I read through the poems of Mother Shipton, which I found printed there, says an exchange.

Mother Shipton, who was born during the reign of Henry VIII, was looked upon as a witch in her day. Her poems, which were published after her death, contained what must be regarded today as remarkable prophecies. Her knowledge was ascribed to an alliance with the devil. From whatever source that foresight came it can only be regarded as marvellous.

Many people have heard of Mother Shipton, but as few have read her poem in detail, it will possibly be of interest to many of our readers. Here it is:

A house of glass has come to pass,
In merry England, but alas,
War will follow with the work
In the land of the Turk,
And State and States in fierce strife,
Struggle for each other's life.
Carriages without horses shall go,
And accidents fill the world with woe
In London Primrose Hill shall be,
And the centre of a Bishop's see.
Around the world thought shall fly,
In the twinkling of an eye.
Through the hill men shall ride,
And neither horse nor ass bestride.
Under water men shall walk,

Shall ride, shall sleep, shall talk,
Iron in the water shall float,
As easily as a wooden boat.
Gold shall be found and shown
In a land that's now unknown.
Fire and waters shall wonders do,
And England shall admit a Jew.
Three times three shall lovely France
Be led to dance a bloody dance,
Before her peoples shall be free;
Three tyrant rulers shall see
Each springing from different dynasty.

And when the last great fight is won
England and France shall be as one.
And now a word in uncouth rhyme
Of what shall be in latter time.
In those wonderful far-off days,
Women shall get a strange odd case
To dress like men, and breeches wear
And cut off their beautiful locks of hair.

And ride astride with brazen brow
As witches do on broomsticks now.
Then love shall die and marriage cease

And babies and sucklings so decrease
That wives shall fondle cats and dogs
And men live much the same as hogs
In eighteen hundred and ninety-six
Build your homes of rotten sticks,
For then shall mighty wars be planned.

And fire and swords sweep over the land,
And those who live the century through
In fear and trembling this will do:
Fly to the mountains and to the glen,
To bogs and forests and wild dens.

For tempests will rage and oceans will roar,
And Gabriel stand on sea and shore:
And as he toots his wonderful horn,
Old worlds shall die and new be born.

In the air men shall be seen,
In white, in black, in green;
Now strange, but yet they shall be true,
The world upside down shall be.
And gold shall be found at the roots
Of a tree.

Through hills men shall ride,
And horses nor ass be not at his side.
It will be seen that the following events were foretold:
The building of Crystal Palace,

THERE'S NO OTHER
TOBACCO JUST LIKE

OLD CHUM

CUT COARSE
FOR THE PIPE

CUT FINE
FOR ROLLING YOUR OWN

London.

The Turkish war.
The advent of the motor car.
The advent of the aeroplane.
The invention of wireless.
The building of submarines.
The finding of gold in Australia.
The Franco-Prussian War.
The British and French alliance.
The decline of the birth rate.
The wearing of men's clothing by women.

The evacuation of cities to the country.

From whatever source the prophecies came, they can only be described as remarkable.

Horsehair seems an insignificant thing to discuss herein, yet it's part of our war effort, needed to make special brushes for the army, navy and air force, and for war plants. Farmers, grooming their horses for spring work, should save combings from shaggy mane and tail, sell it to dealers, the good quality being worth from 30 to 35 cents a pound. In 1941 some 880,000 pounds of horsehair was marketed in Canada, three-quarters of which came from farmers of the west. Last year only 450,000 pounds were sold to wool and hide dealers. If there isn't sufficient material this year to meet war and other demands we'll have to import from Argentina at a big subsidy cost to the country. That's why it's important.

Nearly 71,000 pounds of ordinary milkweed, most of which had been collected by rural school children in Ontario and Quebec, made up about 2,000 separate purchases by the Agricultural Supplies Board. This has now been turned over to the National Research Council of Ottawa, where it is being processed. Preliminary laboratory experiments indicate the gum, obtained from milkweed on Canadian farms and countryside, may be useful for (Continued on page 3)

Canadian Garden Service

For Freshness

In practically all vegetables, and especially the leafy and root sorts, the real secret of crispness and garden freshness is quick growth. Lettuce that has been stalled in its growth period or carrots or young beets that have received a check, then started to grow again, are almost sure to be tougher or woodier than they should be. The reason is simple. Once growth slows down for any reason, the roots or leaves start to toughen and dry-out, with the result that crispness and tenderness soon disappear. Even if quick growth is resumed again, there is liable to be a lowering of the high, fresh quality one has a right to associate with vegetables grown right at the kitchen door.

Market gardeners know all about this danger and they guard against it successfully. By proper thinning and fertilizing by constant cultivation and by watering whenever necessary they keep their cabbage, cauliflowers, celery, radish, lettuce, etc., coming along almost regardless of weather. Say the experts - "Give the average vegetable sufficient room between plants, cultivate soil thoroughly so that there is a fine drought-resisting mulch on top always during the growing season, add a little fertilizer, commercial or natural, even when soil is fairly good, and during a real siege of drought water those rows and kinds which need it, and there will be no tough vegetables in your Victory Garden this year."

Thinning and Spacing

Of the early jobs after the first of the garden is planted none can compare in importance with thinning and spacing. This applies to either flowers or vegetables. Crowded flowers will get thin and spindly, will not bloom long and the biggest plants will blow over in the first storm. They should have half as much room between as they will grow tall. This means about four or five inches for things like nasturtiums, less for alyssum, much more for 30-inch tall marigolds and cosmos.

With vegetables, two measurements must be considered - width between rows and space between plants. Tiny things like radish only need a couple of inches between plants, and leaf lettuce, early carrots, beets, about the same. Twelve inches between rows will be enough for these but fifteen inches will make cultivation and working easier. Beans and peas should have four to six inches between, and as all the seed usually germinates it should be planted to about this far apart. Corn is usually planted three to six seeds to a hill, about 18 inches apart.

Labor Savers

New gardeners are advised to watch the way old-timers handle tedious jobs. Wherever possible they use long-handled spades, forks, rakes and hoes to prevent stooping. They also use little special cultivators with long handles. Even in wartime it is possible to get a very fair assortment of garden tools. Minimum requirements are a rake, hoe and either a digging fork or spade.

Order Seeds Early

Newcomers are advised to order early. Canadian seedsmen say there will be enough to go around if orders are placed early and only what is needed for this season is bought. Canada has now to depend entirely on its own production and what seed can be imported from the United States.

A HEALTH SERVICE OF THE CANADIAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION AND LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES IN CANADA

Toronto, Ont., Mar. 26. - One week intensive educational campaign by Junior Boards of Trade and Junior Chambers of Commerce, in cooperation with the national program of the Health League of Canada, have proved a valuable weapon for the eradication of venereal disease, the Health League said here today.

"There was some tendency, several years ago, to regard such short, intensive campaigns as 'flash-in-the-pan' effort which would not achieve lasting results. The contrary has been the experience."

The League referred to a recent statement by Hon. J. McLenaghan, Manitoba minister of health and welfare. Speaking of the intensive educational campaign of one week staged by the Young Men's Section of the Winnipeg Board of Trade two months earlier, he said:

"Any thought we may have entertained at the outset of that campaign that it would terminate at the end of one week and that interest would cease, has been dispelled. The momentum of that publicity campaign in November has grown steadily. We are still meeting requests for speakers, films, pamphlets and other publicity materials and our present schedule of assignments will carry us into many weeks in the future."

blending with synthetic rubber. "It is hoped," says Dr. Senn, of the Division of Botany and Plant Pathology, "that the large scale experiments, will confirm the earlier findings." Nice going, children, that's national service.

The five units of the Canadian Army Show which have been performing regularly Overseas since mid-January are breaking attendance records at camps all over England. From January 17 to February 25 they played 138 shows, travelled 9,500 miles.

A point to remember is that rationing of farm machinery is still necessary in order that the available equipment goes out to those producers who need it most, and therefore the administrator says, applications are only being taken from farmers who actually own or lease the land on which the machinery is to be used. Though factory production will be greater than in 1943, still it will only be about 80 per cent of normal and not nearly enough to fill all farm demands. Repair parts will be 156 per cent of normal.

Up to January 1 of this year a total of 979,569 Canadians had reported for preliminary medical examination under the National Resources Mobilization Act. Of this number 71,545 enlisted immediately and of the 433,453 told to report for military training 220,762 responded and 117,752 more asked for deferments. These figures were revealed in the House of Commons.

The impact of present high taxes on incomes brought some discussion in the House of Commons from members who thought something should be allowed them for expenses to compensate. It was pointed out that quite a number of the members who give their full time to parliamentary duties have no other income; and if one didn't bring his family to Ottawa, it was tantamount to having to maintain two homes. The sessional indemnity of $4,000 is taxable.

The Federal government spent $1,850,450 during the last fiscal year on education of original Canadians—the Indians—it was revealed in a report to Parliament. Of 118,316 Indians in Canada 59,511 are paid treaty money. Indian chiefs get $25 annually, headmen $15 and non-titled Indians $5 and $4. An interesting revelation also was the death rate per 100,000 Canadians, excluding the Indians it was 45.7; among the Indians it was 62.9 that was for the year 1942.

Public Enemy No. 2

We all know Enemy No. 1. His defeat is our first concern. Enemy No. 2 is the octopus of financial and industrial monopoly.

THIS OCTOPUS DECIDES—

—whether or not you have a job
—the price for your farm products
—whether or not we'll have another depression

THE C C F SAYS: This economic dictatorship must stop.

THE C C F SAYS: Credit and financial institutions must be the servants of the people, not their masters.

THE C C F SAYS: Canada's resources must be used to prevent depressions... to provide homes... jobs... security... educational opportunities... independence and usefulness for every citizen.

The whole purpose of the C C F program for public ownership of banks and other monopolies, is to achieve these things.

ABUSE IS NO ANSWER!

Yet this is the only weapon the spokesmen of monopoly have left. Hence their scaremongering about the C C F interfering with your savings... insurance... home... farm.

They know, as you know, that their charges are false... that through the C C F program your home and farm will be more secure... your savings and insurance will be intact and guaranteed by the wealth of the entire nation.

This Mail has PRIORITY

WHEN a man is wounded in action or seriously ill, he is rushed through field and base hospitals with all possible speed, to the place where most effective treatment can be given. Because of this rapid movement, his mail may not "catch up" for some time, yet, if ever he longed for a letter from home, it is at such a time.

To offset possible delays, a new "Short-Cut" mail service has been put into effect. A Priority Casualty Card is filled in and rushed by Air Mail to his friends or relatives with instructions to add the words "In Hospital" to the unit address they usually use.

Letters mailed from Canada bearing the words "In Hospital" are routed direct to the records office in the United Kingdom or the Central Mediterranean Force, as the case may be. They are given preference in transport, whether sent by Air Mail or regular mail. Thus they will reach the addressee faster than ever before.

It is inevitable that in tracing men who have been moved, or wounded, some delays occur. But you can rest assured everything that can mean speedier deliveries of letters to your men is being well and thoroughly done—and will be done.

When you get a Priority Casualty Card be sure the words "In Hospital" are added to the regular unit address when writing overseas.

FARMERS AND THE SIXTH VICTORY LOAN

Suggestion that Alberta farmers earmark the returns they are to receive from their wheat participation certificates for Sixth Victory Loan bond purchases was made by officers of the Provincial War Finance Committee here today.

According to a statement tabled in the House of Commons recently by the Minister of Trade and Commerce, the Canadian Wheat Board had an over-all surplus on its operations for the crop years 1940-41, 1941-42 and 1942-43 estimated at around $40 million.

It is understood participation payments on the 1940-41 operations will shortly be in the hands of the producers, and that settlements for the balance of the crop years will be forthcoming during the next few months. Alberta will share substantially in this. Generally speaking, therefore, the position of our wheat growers is much more satisfactory than they, or anyone else, have credited.

While there will be some necessary calls on these monies, the War Finance officials agreed, much of them will constitute reserves in the farmers' hands, and it is hoped Sixth Victory Loan bonds will become the mediums by which the reserves are carried. During past loans, the officials point out, the citizens of our wheat growing areas have responded in creditable manner, but many of them have been forced to limit their bond purchases through low wheat incomes. In the Sixth Loan they have the opportunity to make arrangements for purchases, confident that their wheat participation payments will liquidate the obligations they incur in so doing.

children, at this as well as at all times. The first of these, it has been proposed should be made available to every mother through the extension of Health care and Services, thus relieving the home of low income of the anxiety and uncertainty of the lack of proper skilled care. The other, it is urged, should be assured if at all possible, by attempting to sustain the family income to the level where an expectant mother is not gainfully occupied outside her own home for as long a period in her pregnancy, and in the postnatal period as can be brought. Where this cannot be done, practical social experience suggests that the family is likely to be so close to the sub-existence line, due to poverty or some fundamental person al maladjustment, as to need service and assistance of a skilled and continuous nature and possibly other care such as nutrition and housing help, rather than just the payment of a small maternity grant with a few week's lay-off, before and after the child's birth.

The fore going is a brief synopsis of a book entitled "The Dawn of Ampler Life" by Charlotte Whitton, C.B.E. and probably was suggested by the verse taken from "Between Midnight and Morning" by Sir Owen Seaman.

Ye that have faith to look with fear
 Less eyes
 Beyond the tragedy of a world at strife
 And trust that out of night and death shall rise
 The dawn of ampler life.

We hope Canada with its vast resources, will give maximum employment, fair wages for workers in all walks of life, and fair prices for the products of the farm, sea, the forest, the mines and the factories. Let us hope the post war plan for Social Service or Social Security will set a higher standard of living, one not inconsistent with human dignity. For a better Canada we must have freedom of speech, freedom of worship, freedom from fear and freedom from want.

The gift donated by Mrs. P. May was won by Mrs. W. J. Huntingford.

The next meeting will be held on May 11th at the home of Mrs. W. Harley in the evening at 8 p.m. Roll call to be answered by stump speeches.

Gift to be donated by Mrs. Blakely and the hostesses will be Mrs. W. Harley and Mrs. P. May.

On Wednesday evening last the junior pupils of St. Joseph's Academy music class entertained their parents and friends with a delightful program. The piano numbers, consisting of solos, duets, trios and two-piano pieces, all showed talent and careful preparation on the part of the youthful performers and won hearty applause from the audience.

Perhaps a special word of praise should be given the two-piano pieces by four girls, and four boys. The instrumentalists were pleasingly interspersed with pretty choruses, Fairies Bells Ring, Spring Song and Good Night.

The following pupils took part in the program: M. Killoran, B. Conroy, F. Minter, E. Marsden, D. Marsden, M. Valois, A. Valois, A. Leighton, L. Caron, L. Bolduc, G. Wilkin, R. Prichard, L. Wright, L. On Wednesday evening last the junior pupils of St. Joseph's Academy music class entertained their parents and friends with a delightful program. The piano numbers, consisting of solos, duets, trios and two-piano pieces, all showed talent and careful preparation on the part of the youthful performers and won hearty applause from the audience.

Perhaps a special word of praise should be given the two-piano pieces by four girls, and four boys. The instrumentalists were pleasingly interspersed with pretty choruses, Fairies Bells Ring, Spring Song and Good Night.

The following pupils took part in the program: M. Killoran, B. Conroy, F. Minter, E. Marsden, D. Marsden, M. Valois, A. Valois, A. Leighton, L. Caron, L. Bolduc, G. Wilkin, R. Prichard, L. Wright, L. Wilson, C. Tory, R. Everett, F. Foster, A. Rassmussen, G. Rassmussen, M. O'Rourke, B. O'Rourke, C. Wright, W. Sorgen.

You've Done A Fine Job!

A Tribute to the Food Producer

The farmers and stockmen of Western Canada are making a magnificent contribution to the war effort by maintaining a fine record of food production.

Their achievement is particularly notable because of the many difficulties and discouragements to be overcome... including shortages of help and materials. Under these arduous conditions the farmers are "carrying on" in the best tradition so that the food that is so necessary to the winning of the war may not be lacking.

It is a source of great satisfaction to us that we are able, in some measure, to help the food producers meet the problems facing them during these trying times — and to assure them of our continued effort to supply them with lumber to meet their essential needs.

You are invited to consult the Beaver Lumber agent on your building problems — at an early date — for the best advice, assistance and materials available.

Farm Notes

Within the next few weeks millions of honey-bees will arrive in Canada. The main effort of the bees will be concerned with food production. Not only will they gather and conserve millions of pounds of honey that would otherwise go to waste but they will also render a much more valuable service by increasing the production of fruit, seeds and vegetables by cross-pollinating the flowers on which they work to gather the honey. In addition to the honey they produce and the increase they are responsible for in other crops, the bees also produce large quantities of wax now widely used in wartime production.

The Wartime Prices and Trade Board recently announced a plan whereby a subsidy of fifty cents per pound will be paid on all package bees imported into Canada from the United States between March 1 and June 15, 1944. Application for the subsidy must be made to the Commodity Prices Stabilization Corporation, Ottawa, within ninety days after receiving the bees. Those purchasing bees from an importing agency within Canada cannot claim the subsidy as this will be allowed in the prices paid to such agents.

The Wartime Prices and Trade Board require all beekeepers, irrespective of the number of colonies kept, to register with the Board. Those producing less than 4,000 pounds of honey may register with their nearest Local Ration Board while those producing more than 4,000 pounds must register with the nearest branch of the Ration Administration, otherwise permits to purchase sugar for the feeding of bees may be refused by the Provincial Apiarist to whom application for such permit must be directed.

Bees Require Protection From Cold

The location of hives should be carefully selected so that they are sheltered from cold winds but exposed to warm sunshine, says W.G. le Maistre, Provincial Apiarist. The wrapping of each hive with a sheet of black tar paper is an advantage. The black surface absorbs the heat from the sun, and this greatly assists the bees in keeping the hive temperature up during sunny weather. Furthermore, if the supers do not fit exactly, the crack is covered by the tar paper, thus eliminating cold draughts caused by winds blowing on the hives. The bees themselves generate heat, but the beekeeper should assist in the conservation of this heat.

Hives awaiting the arrival of package bees might be made ready in a heated building, and left inside unit very shortly before the bees are to be placed in them. Quite often, hives are set outside in readiness for the bees two or three days before they arrive. During this period the hives become cold and if there are honey or feed combs in them some time will be required for them to warm up sufficiently to become attractive to the bees.

Creep Feeding of Young Stock

Much money is lost as a result of retarded growth in young live stock. For the best development of any animal, the most economical plan is continual normal growth. Foals, calves, lambs or pigs, thrive better as a result of the extra trouble and feed supplied in a creep, where older stock cannot reach it, says E. Van Nise, Dominion Experiment Station, Scott, Sask.

It is a radical change from milk diet to a raw grain ration. The more gradual the change is made the better. Young pigs will start eating quite young if they have an opportunity to nibble at a special, easily digested dry meal mixture as often as they like. At about four weeks of age they often find their mothers' milk reduced in quantity just when they need an increased ration. If they are in pens or dry lots, the only other source of feed may be at the mother's trough, which is not satisfactory. It is at this time that creep feeding of a special meal mixture is particularly desirable.

Foals, calves, and lambs may be on pasture with their dams, and actually lose weight without the knowledge of the owner for during the heat of summer, the pasture often becomes dry and short. At the Dominion Experimental Station at Scott, Sask., creep feeding of young stock has proved to be quite beneficial and is recommended for helping the young stock over the most critical part of their lives and in turn increasing net profits to the owner.

The self feeder is a satisfactory method of feeding in all cases as the young stock will approach full feed gradually while they are first learning to take solid food. In case of young pigs being trough fed, dry chop is preferable, since moist chop often sours before it is consumed.

World of Wheat

H. G. L. Strange,
Director, Research Department,
Searle Grain Company, Ltd.

Rates of Seeding

Recent experiments made by the Dominion Experimental Farms and by the "Crop Testing Plan" indicate that farmers at times have lost some yield by sowing their grains at too low a rate per acre. Grains which have large kernels such as Red Bobs, Marquis and Regent wheat, and such barley varieties as Plush, Newal, Warrior, Sunalta, Rex and Hannchen need to be sown at a higher rate to the acre than smallerkerneled varieties such as Thatcher wheat or Gartons O.A.C. 21, Mensury, Wisconsin 38, Regal, Prospect and Titan barleys.

It is further found that if seeding is delayed for any reason than a heavier rate of seeding is required to obtain the same yield.

It is discovered also that if the land is light and sandy, early seeding will give better results than late seeding. Somewhat heavier seeding of any grain, too, will help better to control weeds.

The Dominion Experimental Farm, Lethbridge, tell us that they have found there is no advantage to be gained in lighter sowing because of a dry season.

All in all, then, it would appear that there is some risk of a loss in yield by sowing at too low a rate. Whenever, therefore, the farmer is in doubt it would appear that heavier sowing will give him a better assurance of a higher yield.

ITEMS OF INTEREST IN THE WORLD OF FOODSTUFFS

The U.S.A. estimates the use of wheat for feed this season at 470 million bushels. Production of bread grains in Sweden in 1943 was at about the same level as in 1942, but considerably below average. Switzerland has begun rationing of bread and some dairy products.

The Argentine Government has authorized "Futures" trading in coarse grains commencing April 10th. Broomhall reports that exports of wheat and flour from the chief exporting countries this season will likely be the largest since 1940. Weather conditions in Australia are reported generally favorable for spring ploughing and some increase in acreage is expected.

June Violet Part, 18, pro-tem resident of Moncton, N.B., was one such unwilling exile. But she overcame the difficulties of returning recently, when she enlisted with the Canadian Women's Army Corps. Now, clad in khaki and undergoing the regular C.W.A.C. training course, she's happy in the knowledge she's serving both her native and her adopted countries.
